DAVIS THEATRE.

New Triangle Pictures Today and Vacuum Cleaners, a big Keith Headline Act.

There will be an entirely new pro-gramme of Triangle photoplays at this theatre today, and the feature is The Wood Nymph, a five part Ince pro-duction, featuring the celebrated star, Daphne (Marie Doro) has been reared by her mother in the wood-covered mountains. Having read about the Greek gods, she peoples the forest with creatures of her imagination. One with creatures of her imagination. One day as she is running and dancing through the trees she suddenly stops before a giant of the forest. She imagines that Apollo lives in the tree. Clapping her hands, she calls for him to appear. A youth dressed in hunting garb stands before her. She thinks it must be the god, but he tells her he is William Jones (Charles West). Fred Arnold (Wilfred Lucas) also meets the wood nymph. William and Fred have a fight over the girl, but finally shake hands as friends. The woods are set in fire by tramps. Jones seeks to rescue the girl, but returns to camp almost overcome by the flames. The wood nymph wanders near the camp and is carried unconscious to safety by Fred. The mother of Daphne is found The mother of Daphne is found by David Arnold, the father of Fred. With the help of the guide he takes her to camp. He is overloyed to find the woman is his wife, who had left him many years before on account of a misunderstanding. William is happy when he finds the wood nymph safe. The two reel Keystone comedy is called Perils of the Park, and it is one are on this bill, including The Vacuum Cleaners, a big Keith headliner; Lottle Dwyer, the singing and dancing girl, and Silent Mora, the novelty trickster. Special music will be played during the feature picture by the Davis conorchestra under the direction of C.

COLONIAL TODAY.

Corbett and Claire Whitney.

Henry Banfield and his wife are sep arated by the law. They have two children, boys, and in accordance with the decree of the court, the younger boy is given to the mother and the elder to the father. After the separa-tion Mrs. Banfield through adverse circumstances falls into poverty, while Henry Eanfield becomes a wealthy man. Henry Banfield and his wife lose sight of each other and after sev-eral years the situation has got to a point where Mrs. Banfield is penniless and Ill. To procure medicine for his mother, Ned steals. He is taken by the police and sentenced to prison. The shock kills his mother. Other pictures are: The Runaway Box Car, with Helen Holmes, and Fits and Chills, comedy, fill the big bill for today. Tomorrow The Gray Mask, with Edwin Arden, in five parts. Matinee every day at 2.30,

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Blanche Sweet in Secret Sin and Three Classy Acts Today and Saturday.

The evils of the oplum and morphine habits are graphically depicted in the Lasky production of The Secret Sin, which will be at the Auditorium today and Saturday, with Blanche Sweet, the brilliant Lasky star, in the leading role. In this thrilling drama, written especially for Miss Sweet by Margaret Turnbull, the famous dramatist, the clever star plays two characters—twielsters. One of the sisters is a victim of the opium and morphine habit and tries to sacrifice her sister's future happiness in an effort to place the vice or her and lose the man she loves. The shawl used by Geraldine Farrar. the international prima donna, in the photogramatic production of Carmen, which will be the attraction at the Auditorium on March 13, 14, 15, is more than 100 years old. It was an heirloom of an old Spenish family who, through poverty, were forced to sell it. Miss Perrar picked it up in an antique shop in Madrid during her last engagement at the Spanish capital.

On the vaudeville bill for today and tomorrow will be three very classy acts, including Tabor and Claire, a dainty sister team; Dick and Alice Mc-Avoy in a comedy singing and talking specialty and Leroy and Berry who specialty, and Lercy and Barry, who offer a very original novelty singing, dancing and acrobatic number. The Pathe comedy reel is entitled The Troubles of Rufus and is a scream from start to finish.

NO FURTHER DELAY

Congestion of Mercantile Marine on the Mersey is Disappearing.

Laverpool, March 2.—Although six months ago from forty to fifty steamers were rying in the Mersey at one time waiting for a chance to dock, today this congestion has almost entraits. tirely disappeared and what delay does occur is due to a shortage of labor rather than a lack of berthing accommodations. The chief reason for the falling away in he amount of tonnage coming into Liverpool is the neavy call the government has made on the British mercantile marine.

Official returns for Liverpool show that from January 1 to February 4 of this year 267 vessels aggregating 703.-638 tons were reported inwards as compared with $28 ships of $61,224 compared wise 355 Salps of 001,222 tons for the corresponding period of last year, while 286 ships of 754,502 tons cleared outward this year as against 357 ships of 1,118,554 tons for No reduction in freights appears in sight owing to the shortage of but-tons. The government is exercising its control of shipping by forcing the Crows Driven to Seek Food Near Houses-Tidings From Florida-Eyening of Whist.

The weeks of snow-covered ground have made it hard for even crows to find food. It is unusual for them to come near houses. Last week a large flock was seen in a tree near a house and at another place this week the crows are coming almost to the door to feed with the juncos and sparrows. Flickers have been heard this week, and the downy, highhole, and cockedaded wookpeckers noted.

Pleasant Weather South, Mrs. Owen S. Smith writes from Florida that the weather for the past few weeks in Eustis has been beautiful. Washington's birthday was like a northern Fourth of July. How to Destroy Catarrh Germs and End Catarrh Forever

Catarrh, according to a noted authority, is a germ disease and the only way to cure it so it will stay cured and never come back is to kill and drive out of your system the catarrhal germs which have found lodgement there. When the germs go the catarrh will stop.

which have found lodgement there. When the germs go the catarrh will stop.

There is nothing better for destroying catarrh germs than breathing into your nose and lungs the pleasant, soothing, healing, germ destroying air of Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me), made from pureet oil of Eucalyptus and combined with other powerful healing, antiseptic and germ destroying lingredients. Hyomei penetrates and heals the inflamed swollen membranes of your nose and throat, stops discharges, clears the passages and completely overcomes the disease by destroying its cause. For catarrh germs cannot live in your body after Hyomei reaches them. Lee & Osgood and many other, good druggists in Norwich and vicinity have long sold Hyomei on a positive guarantee of successful results or money back and find this generous policy pays.

POETRY

WHAT IS HOME!

Home's not made of palace walls,
Though with pictures hung and
glided;
Home is where affection calls—
Filled with shrines the heart hath builded;
Home to walch the faithful dove
Salls beneath the heaven above us,
Home is where there's one to love—
Home is where there's one to love us.

Home's not merely roof and room;
Home needs something to endear it.
Home is where the heart can bloom,
Where there's some kind lip to cheer
it!
What is home with none to greet us?
Home is sweet—and only sweet.
Where there's one we love to meet us.

—Old Favorite.

-Old Favorite. LET'S START FORGETTING.

Let's start forgetting.
There are so many things to lay away
In graves—dead hates and fears and doubts that flay.
And all these little faults, scarce
worth a groan.
There are so many black days we have known!

There is no use regretting! Let's try forgetting! Let's start forgetting.
A thought of envy is no pleasant guest
And hatred nourished leaves no peace or rest;
A tear's no thing to treasure, and no Becomes a cornerstone to fuller life!

Away with grief and fretting!

Let's start forgetting!
